SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. PASEWALK (Q16), 7-8 March 1950

a. Approximately 1,100 motorized rifle troops wearing black tabs/red piping occupy barracks at PASEWALK. Some are recruits in the basic training stage. No heavy weapons were seen.

b. The unit maintains close liaison with troops in PRENZLAU (Q04) and the few trucks at its disposal appear to be used chiefly for hauling supplies between the latter town and PASEWALK. [REDACTED]

c. There is no Soviet komandatura at PASEWALK. The nearest is at UECKERMUNDE (Q18).

2. ANKLAM (U09), 9 March 1950

This town is not occupied by Soviet troops. The former Arado airfield, at the SSW exit of ANKLAM, is not in use. Part of the field is being cultivated. The former landing area is intact and could accommodate single- and twin-engine fighter aircraft if the terrain were rehabilitated and obstacles removed. There are no indications of such improvement, however.
